FOUNDATION CONFERENCE OF DELHI STATE COMMITTEE-AIBRF A MAGNIFICIENT SUCCESS

Conference of an organization exemplifies the unity and solidarity of the Membership. It reflects the love & affection of members towards the Organisation and it leads to Onward march of the movement to achieve its goal.

Delhi State Committee of AIBRF held its Foundation Conference on 6th March 2016 in Rai Kedar Nath Auditorium , Pahar Ganj, New Delhi. Retirees of various Banks started arriving from 10 AM and by the time Conference began at 11 AM , the Auditorium of 500 sitting capacity was full with enthusiastic members. Even additional sitting capacity in balcony was used to accommodate the members arriving after 11 AM .

The Conference started with inviting the guests to the dais & garlanding them. The guests list included General Secretary of ALL INDIA BANK RETIREES FEDERATION Shri S. C. Jain, Vice President of AIBEA and Gen Sec. of DSBEF Com. J.P.Sharma , Com. D. D. Rustagi, Jt. Secretary of AIBEA & President of DSBEF beside Office Bearers and Central Committee Members of AIBRF with some office bearers of DSBEF. Lighting of lamps was done by guests with clapping by members.

The Conference proceedings presided by Sh. D. P. Gupta , vice president of AIBRF, started with Welcome address by Sh. A. K. Bansal, DGS-AIBRF. In his presidential address Sh. D. P. Gupta informed about the need of State Committee in Delhi, Capital of the country, and also its importance for Bank retirees movement.

The Inaugural address by Shri S. C. Jain, Gen. Secretary – AIBRF was full of informations on the latest developments of the Banking Industry as well as on the issues relating to retirees. He called upon the retirees present to strengthen unity amongst all bank retirees to fight for the respect and dignity of pensioners of Banking industry. He gave a call to all members to be ready for the agitation programme to be launched from Capital of the country.

He informed that as per the Theme of 4th Triennial Conference of ALL INDIA BANK RETIREES FEDERATION at Thrissur “ WE SHALL STUGGLE ---WE SHALL ACHIEVE” the formation of Delhi State Committee-AIBRF is the right decision at the right time as Delhi is going to become Epic Centre of AIBRF struggles to press and achieve our demands.

Com. J. P. Sharma, Vice President of AIBEA assured the retirees of all help at organizational level in our fight for our issues. In his address he traced the history of Pension settlement and its implementation. He also reminded the role of some organisations in misguiding the bank employees for not opting for pension. While assuring all help to newly formed Delhi State Committee of AIBRF he showed the confidence that Delhi unit of AIBRF will emerge as its most vibrant State unit.

Com. D. D. Rustagi , Jt. Secretary of AIBEA informed the house about the policies of IBA and Government which is declaring huge NPA but not ready to give much deserve 100% D.A. neutralization & increase in Family pension in line with Govt. employees. He emphasized that there has to be joint fight of working unions and retirees organizations against the IBA and Ministry of Finance to achieve Retirees just and over due demands.

During business session of the conference the house unanimously adopted Rules-By laws and constitution of Delhi State Committee-AIBRF placed for approval by Shri Suresh Sharma, Organising Secretary-AIBRF. The unique feature of the adopted Rules and By laws of Delhi State Committee , in the words of Gen. Secretary-AIBRF, is that in the team of office bearers one post of vice president and one post of assistant secretary are reserved for women candidates to ensure greater participation of women retirees in the struggle of bank retirees movement.
