Dear Sir

Re: Meeting of Apex Level Retiree Organisations
At Delhi on 28.07.2015

Meeting of apex level retiree organisations operating in the banking industry was convened in Delhi on 28.05.2015 with the object to develop coordination among them for united and joint fight on common agreed pending demands of the retirees in the changed circumstances after signing of 10th wage settlement.

2. The meeting was attended by the representatives of 5 apex level organisations namely Federation of State Bank of India Pensioners' Associations,(FSBIPA) All India Bank Retirees' Federation (AIBRF) All India Bank Retirees' and Pensioners' Confederation(AIBPRC) Retired Bank Officers' National Confederation (RBONC) and All India Retired Bank Employees' Association (AIRBEOA). These 5 organisations represent more than 3 lakhs bank retirees and pensioners.

3. During the deliberations ,representatives of all the 5 organisations unanimously expressed the need to come together on agreed common demands of bank retirees for joint struggle on regular basis till they are achieved. All were of the view that the permanent body at the apex level should be formed for this purpose.

4. From AIBRF side , we pointed out that AIBRF has been in favour of coordination and united struggle at the industry level right from its formation in the year 1995. Further we had drawn the attention that at the initiative of AIBRF the apex level body, UFBRO was formed in 1998 and has been functioning since then. At present UFBRO has 3 affiliates with total membership close to 2lakhs. We further assured to the house that AIBRF is committed to work for coordination among apex level retiree organisation and are open for discussion on all relevant points/ issues with other organisations in this regard.
