Dear Sir

Re: Unprecedented Heavy Rains in Tamilnadu
Re: Appeal for Help

Comrades, You must have read in newspapers and seen TV news that for last 15/ 20 days there have been very heavy rains in the state of Tamilnadu and in particular in the city of Chennai and adjoin districts affecting millions of people. These continuous rains have created flood like situation in the state. Entire Chennai city is under deep water. It has affected essential supplies like electricity water communication system. There has been huge loss of properties and human life.

2. AIBRF express fully sympathy for the affected people and in particular affected bank retirees and our membership. On this occasion of natural calamity we make appeal to our affiliates and membership at large to give generous financial help for the cause of affected people and send their contribution to AIBRF central office so we can send consolidated amount can be remitted to the Chief Minister Relief Fund for the help of flood affected people of the state

With Regards

Yours Sincerely

(S.C.JAIN)
