DEMAND DAY IN KARNATAKA

BANGALORE

Karnataka State Unit of AIBRF observed demands day today, as already informed to you earlier.

The programme was arranged at Kannada Sahitya Parishat Auditorium, Chamarajpet, b.lore.

The auditorium was over flowing with angry as well as enthusiastic retirees from various banks. Angry, because of the attitude of the Govt and all the concerned towards legitimate and reasonable issues of retirees. Enthusiastic because of the bold and dedicated leadership of AIBRF which has unleashed a series of programmes and has started an innovative programme of sending on line representation to prime minister, which is happening for the first time in the history of Indian Banking Industry.

The Hall was overflowing. The passage, verandah and the surroundings of the auditorium were overflowing. The attendance- of more than 400 was totally surprising and encouraging.

Our General Secretary explained the latest position. It was revealed that most of our members in the state have sent the online representation. The General Secretary advised all those who are unable to send the representation on their own to contact our state committee office, where arrangements are made to assist in sending the online representation.

Mr Jaleel, vice president presided. Mr Venkat Rao, Org sec of AIBRF also spoke.

Mr M.S. Bhat, our Dy Gen Sec welcomed and mr Haridas Adiga from Canara Bank proposed vote of thanks.

Retiree from all banks except State Bank of Mysore participated in large numbers. None from State Bank of Mysore Pensioners' Commune was present.

10 retirees spoke appreciating the AIBRF and its efforts and gave their suggestions.

Photographs will be uploaded separately.

With greetings

K. Vishwanath Naik

Gen Sec, AIBRF, Karnataka STATE COMMITTEE.
