be request to contact more and more Central Ministers/ Members of Parliament for this purpose.

(d) Individual members should continue to send on line representations to PMO during the months of June and July 2016. State Bodies/ Affiliates should approach the membership for this purpose for further action

(e) Central Office should initiate follow up measures on action programmes like sending letter of thanks to the honourable central ministers/ Members of Parliament for their support with the request to further pursue retiree issues with the concerned authorities.

(f) IBA stand on absence of mandate to hold discussion with the retiree organisations need to be continuously follow up and handled at different levels- political level, technical responses, legal measures, approaching bank management etc. till it is resolved finally.

(g) Expert opinion should be sought on the issue of AIBRF approaching CLC/RLC on the issues like violation on settlement on reimbursement of domiciliary expenses under IBA group mediclaim policy for retirees, unwarranted delay in implementation of commitments made on retiree issues in the Record Note dated 25.05.2015. If the opinion is favourable, application should be filed to bring IBA in the conciliation proceedings on these issues.

(h) Our action programmes should continue beyond July 2016 and relay/ indefinite hunger strike should be organised first at Mumbai and thereafter in Delhi if issues are not resolved by that time. Preparation should start for this purpose to mobilise the membership.

(i) Central Committee meeting should be convened at the earliest preferably by September 2016 to take seek its guidance and to take into confidence.

(j) AIBRF will continue to pursue its policy of maintaining cordial relationship with UFBU its constituents and serving employees.

(k) AIBRF will continue to explore possibilities to take steps for developing coordination with the retiree organisations at apex level

With Warm Greetings,

Yours Sincerely,

(S.C.JAIN)
