Dear Comrades,

Re: Second Phase of Agitational Programmes of AIBRF in support of Pending Issues of Retirees
From 01-11-2016 To 31.12.2016.

As all of you are aware, Central Committee in its meeting held at Nagpur took unanimous decision to continue to organise agitational programmes in support of the long pending demands/ issues of bank retirees. In this regard, we also invite your attention on our circular No. 2016/547 dated 29.09.2016 advising the proceedings of Nagpur meeting.

2. To implement decision of the Central Committee, We have now decided to launch second phase of agitational programmes in the current series on All India basis FROM 01.11.2016 TO 31.12.2016.

3. It is decided to organise the following two programmes in second phase:

(a) AIBRF delegations shall submit Memorandum on pending demands of bank retirees to 300 Members of Parliament (Lok Sabha & Rajya Sabha put together) drawing their attention on injustice being done with the retirees and requesting to write to Finance Minister for suitable action and to raise the issue in the Parliament.

(b) To organise HUNGER STRIKE CUM DHARNA PROGRAMME at the maximum possible centres in the country during the period.

SUBMISSION OF MEMORANDUM TO M.Ps.

In order to successfully launch and implement the programme of submission of memorandum to M.Ps. we suggest and advise the following steps to be taken :

(a) We enclose state wise list of office bearers and central committee members and also state wise list of Members of Parliament for your ready reference.

(b) We also enclose summary of centre wise list of office bearers and central committee members. You will kindly note that our office bearers and central committee members are stationed in 47 cities in almost all states of the country. We have 36 office bearers and about 130 central committee members and take responsibility of submitting 2 M.Ps. each, we can easily achieve target of 300 MPs. We hope these data base will help you in preparing action plan.

(c) We request state body convenor, office bearers and central committee members should meet immediately and constitute delegations under leadership of each office bearers/ central committee members of the state and give them task of submitting the memorandum to the specific M.P. in person. Activists, office bearers of the affiliates and other influential persons of the area may be included in such delegations. This work must be undertaken on the priority basis. We request state bodies to send list of such AIBRF delegations along with the list of M.Ps. for our record and monitoring. Wherever our state bodies do not exist at present, office bearers and cc members of the area should coordinate and take initiative for submission of the memorandum.

(d) We are revising the memorandum on retiree demands with some changes and send to all concerned shortly.

(e) While submitting the memorandum, request should be made to MPs for forwarding the same to the FM with favourable recommendations and to raise the retiree issues in the parliament.

(f) Photographs taken on the occasion may be sent to us for compiling the data.

(g) Publicity may be given in local media.

(h) You may forward suggestions if you have any to make the program successfully.

(i) We seek cooperation and active involvement from each and every office bearers and central committee members for
