The General Secretaries of All Affiliates of AIBRF

Dear Sir,

Subject: 7th Triennial Conference at Indore (15–17 December 2026) – Appeal for Financial Support and Greetings Advertisements

We are pleased to inform you that our host unit, the Madhya Pradesh & Chhattisgarh State Committee of AIBRF, though only four years old, is working with great enthusiasm, dedication and commitment to organise the 7th Triennial Conference of AIBRF at Indore from 15th to 17th December 2026.

The State Committee is making all-out efforts to ensure the successful organisation of the conference and to extend a warm welcome and comfortable hospitality to the delegates, observers and other participants. Its commitment and enthusiasm deserve our appreciation and support.

1. Escalation in Conference Expenditure

As reported by the host unit, the expenditure on organising the conference has increased considerably due to several additional requirements and rising costs. The major factors are as follows:

(a) Additional accommodation for delegates and observers: At the request of the concerned affiliates and State Committees, approximately 150 additional delegates/observers will require accommodation for four nights. This is expected to involve an additional expenditure of approximately ₹2 lakh.

(b) Participation of women observers: In keeping with the decision to encourage greater participation of women in AIBRF's organisational activities, approximately 40 women observers are expected to attend the conference. The arrangements for their participation will involve an additional expenditure of approximately ₹1.50 lakh.

(c) Additional escorts: This time, approximately 80 escorts are accompanying delegates and observers. Their participation has placed further pressure on the conference budget.

(d) Increase in food costs: Food costs have increased by approximately 10% during the last two months. This escalation is expected to result in an additional expenditure of approximately ₹5 lakh.

The above factors have substantially increased the financial burden on the host unit. While the State Committee is making sincere efforts to mobilise resources locally, support from our affiliates has become necessary to meet the additional expenditure and ensure that the conference is organised in a befitting manner.

2. Appeal to Affiliates for Financial Support

In view of the above, we make a humble appeal to all affiliates to extend financial support to the host unit by contributing through greetings advertisements to be displayed at the conference venue.

To encourage participation from all affiliates, the following contribution amounts are suggested according to their membership strength:

Membership of Affiliate	Suggested Contribution
10,000 and above	₹50,000
5,000 to below 10,000	₹25,000
2,000 to below 5,000	₹10,000
Below 2,000	₹5,000

The contribution may be remitted to the AIBRF account, along with suitable greetings material for display at the conference venue. Affiliates may kindly coordinate with the AIBRF Central Office regarding the prescribed format and other details of the advertisement.

We sincerely believe that this collective effort will not only help the host unit meet the additional expenditure but will also demonstrate the strength, unity and solidarity of our organisation. The proposed contributions should be viewed not merely as financial assistance but as a gesture of fraternity and shared responsibility towards an important national event of AIBRF.

3. An Opportunity for Individual Members to Participate

In addition to affiliate-level advertisements, individual members may also convey their greetings and best wishes to the conference through the AIBRF Souvenir. This will provide them with an opportunity to associate themselves personally with this important event.

The contribution for publication in the Souvenir is as follows:

- Individual photograph with greetings: ₹2,100 per person.
- Photograph with spouse and greetings: ₹3,100 per couple.

We appeal to office bearers, Central Committee members, State Committee members and other committed members of AIBRF to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Publication of their photographs in the Souvenir will preserve a lasting memory of their association with the 7th Triennial Conference. It will also be a personal expression of their commitment to the AIBRF movement and their solidarity with fellow retirees.

4. Let Us Make the Conference a Collective Success

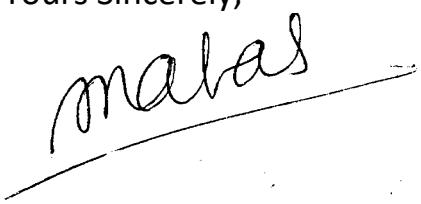

Comrades, the strength of AIBRF lies in the unity, cooperation and collective commitment of its affiliates and members. Our host unit has taken up the responsibility of organising this important conference with enthusiasm, despite its relatively short organisational history. It is now our collective responsibility to extend a helping hand and ensure that its efforts are supported adequately.

We, therefore, earnestly appeal to all affiliates to respond generously to this request and arrange to remit their contributions at the earliest. We also request them to encourage individual members to participate in the Souvenir through greetings and photographs.

Let us stand together in solidarity with our host unit and make the 7th Triennial Conference at Indore a grand success. Let this occasion once again demonstrate that AIBRF is not merely an organisation but a united movement bound together by a common cause and a spirit of fraternity.

With greetings and regards,

Yours Sincerely,

(S. C. JAIN)
GENERAL SECRETARY
