7. At Central office we are facing some serious technical problem in our system. In the process, data related central committee members got corrupted, therefore we are facing difficulty in sending this notice to all eligible central committee members. We are making efforts to retrieve the data which may take some time. In the meantime, we request our all affiliates to take the following steps at their end

- (a) Kindly send us list of AIBRF Central Committee members from their bank with their names, mobile number and e- mail to Central Office on urgent basis.
- (b) Kindly forward this Notice to Central Committee members on behalf of Central Office.

Your cooperation in this regard will be highly appreciated.

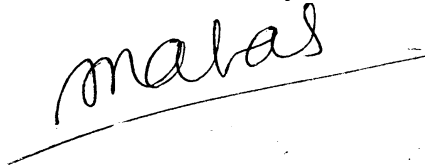

8. Central Committee in physical form is being planned considering overall improvement in Covid situation and removal/ relaxation of several restrictions by the authorities. We are hoping the situation will further improve in coming months. However, this meeting will be subject to covid protocol and last-minute postponement / cancellation of the meeting in case situation so warrant.

9. Other details will be provided by the Central Office/ Bihar State Committee in due course

10 All office bearers/ central committee members and nominated observers are requested to attend the meeting and make it grand success.

With Warm Greetings,

Yours Sincerely
