Shri Thawar Chand Ji Gehlot,
Honorable Governor, Karnataka State
Bengaluru

Respected Sir,

Re: 6th Triennial Conference of AIBRF
Re: Letter of Thanks

It gives immense honor and pleasure to more than 2000 delegates and observers of the conference in conveying sincere and profound thanks to you, Sir for accepting our invitation and sparing your valuable time for inaugurating the conference.

2. Your presence in the conference has added special grace to the function and has created tremendous enthusiasm and cheer among the participants present. They were highly impressed with your simplicity and effective presentation of your views on issues concerning retirees and senior citizens. Your speech was memorable and will work as motivating factor for lakhs of bank retirees. It may be mentioned for your kind information that inaugural session was live telecasted on YouTube for the benefit of more than 2.6 lakhs members of AIBRF and their families.

3. Inaugural Session was followed by business session on 26th & 27th when several pending issues of bank retirees were deliberated and discussed comprehensively. At the end, the following two major issues were identified for pursuing with the government for early solution. We have pleasure in enclosing Memorandum on the two pending issues of bank retirees for your kind consideration with the humble request to forward it to honorable Prime Minister / Finance Minister for their approval.

- (a) Updation of pension
- (b) Group Medical Insurance Scheme for Retirees

4. It will not be out of place to mention that the conference passed unanimous resolution conveying thanks and gratuitousness to the honorable Prime Minister and Finance Minister for sanctioning improvement in family pension benefitting more than 1.5 lakhs family pensioners and improvement in ex-gratia payment to pre- 1986 retirees and spouses who are super senior citizens.

5. We are pleased to enclose two booklets namely (a) GS Report & (b) Information Document prepared for the conference, for your kind information.

With Respectful Regards,

Yours Sincerely
