Dear Sir,

Re: 6th Triennial Conference of AIBRF

Re: Inaugural Address of Honorable Governor

Re: Submission of Memorandum on Updation to the Governor

As you all are aware, 6th Triennial Conference of AIBRF was inaugurated by the Honorable Governor of Karnataka State, Shri Thawar Chand Gehlot on 25.02.2023. During his speech, you will kindly recollect, he specifically asked the House that after deliberations on retiree issues, Memorandum may be submitted by AIBRF on the identified issues of retirees to him and he assured that he would take up the issues with the Finance Minister for resolution.

2. He was in his home town, Nagda (M.P.) for last two days. Taking advantage of his presence in his home town which is about 100 KMs from AIBRF Headquarter, Indore, after taking appointment from, AIBRF delegation consisting of General Secretary, AIBRF Shri S. C. Jain, Treasurer, Shri Sunil Pradhan & Shri Suresh Nahata from Central Bank of India visited Nagda toady (29.03.2023) and submitted Memorandum on Updation & Group Medical Insurance Scheme at his residence. The delegation was received with warm welcome by the Honorable Governor & his staff. He was very positive and sympathetic on retiree issues. Having gone through its contents, he assured the delegation that as promised by him during inaugural speech, he would personally take the issues mentioned in the memorandum with the FM with request for their early resolution.

3. We enclose the following documents submitted to the Honorable Governor during the visit, for your information:

(a) Letter of Thanks No.2023/013 dated 29.03.2023

(b) Memorandum on Updation dated 03.03.2023

(c) Folder containing photos of Inaugural Session of the Conference.

4. Friends, as all of you know, AIBRF has been continuously and closely following up retiree issues, in particular on Updation. Main Slogan of 6th Triennial Conference is on demand of Updation of pension. This is one more step in this direction. Our fight and struggle will continue till it is achieved.

With Fraternal Greetings,

Yours Sincerely
