Dear Sir,

Re: Launching of Woman Wing by Maharashtra State Committee on 06.07.23

We are happy to inform that Maharashtra State Committee which is the largest one with membership around 30000 and one of the oldest state committees of AIBRF formally launched formation of Woman Wing in the Central Committee Meeting held in Pune on 06.07.2023 under the Chairmanship of Mrs. Ujjwala Benglurkar who is also presently Chairperson of Maharashtra State Committee.

2. Launching function was attended by President, AIBRF shri S.M. Deshpande and the undersigned. It is very right and significant move of Maharashtra State Committee towards increasing participation of women in bank retiree movement. As you are aware, to ensure better participation of ladies, AIBRF took historical decision to reserve two positions in office bearers for women in the recently held 6th conference at Bengaluru. First lady elected as Vice president of AIBRF is Mrs. Ratna Uthappa (Union Bank of India.)

3. Initiative taken by woman wing of Karnataka State Committee in meeting Honorable Finance Minister in Bengaluru in February, 2020 on the demand of updation was historical move and is becoming turning point on the issue. On this occasion, we call upon all our State Committees to take organizational steps to ensure active participation of woman retirees in the movement.

With Warm Regards,

Yours Sincerely

(S. C. JAIN)
GENERAL SECRETARY
