Shri R.S. Rawat
Indore

Dear Shri Rawat,

Subject: Appointment as Election Officer for the Election of Office Bearers at the 7th Triennial Conference of AIBRF

We are pleased to inform you that, in the meeting of the Office Bearers Committee of the All India Bank Retirees' Federation (AIBRF) held in Delhi in July 2026, your name was unanimously approved for appointment as Election Officer to conduct elections for the following three key positions of office bearers of AIBRF in the first phase during the 7th Triennial Conference, scheduled to be held at Indore from 15th to 17th December 2026:

- 1. President
- 2. General Secretary
- 3. Joint General Secretary

2. The agenda of the Conference, already circulated, includes the election of office bearers in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of AIBRF. A copy of the Constitution was handed over to you during our last personal meeting. We request you to kindly refer to the relevant constitutional provisions while finalising the election procedure.

3. To assist you in conducting the election smoothly and impartially, it has been decided to nominate the following two representatives as members of the election team:

- Shri Srinivas Iyengar, representing Punjab National Bank (PNB)
- Shri Vyas, representing Central Bank of India (CBI)

You may coordinate with them as necessary for the effective conduct of the election.

4. The polling is tentatively proposed to be held on the evening of 16th December 2026, subject to your confirmation and convenience. We request you to kindly confirm your acceptance of the assignment and the proposed polling schedule at the earliest.

5. As provided under the Constitution of AIBRF, delegates duly nominated by the affiliated organisations will be eligible to vote in the election of the above office bearers through secret ballot. At present, 988 delegates have been nominated. The final list of eligible delegates is expected to be ready within the next week and will be handed over to you for the purpose of conducting the election.

6. To enable AIBRF to issue the necessary circular to all affiliated organisations well in advance, we request you to kindly prepare and communicate the proposed election schedule and procedure, covering the following aspects:

- (a) Invitation of nominations for the three posts mentioned above.
- (b) Prescribed nomination form and the procedure for filing nominations.
- (c) Last date and time for receipt of nominations.
- (d) Date and time for scrutiny of nominations and announcement of valid nominations.
- (e) Last date and time for withdrawal of nominations.
- (f) Final list of candidates contesting the election.
- (g) Date, time and venue of polling.
- (h) Procedure for voting by secret ballot, counting of votes and declaration of results.

You may kindly ensure that the proposed schedule and procedure are consistent with the Constitution of AIBRF and provide adequate opportunity to all eligible candidates and delegates to participate in the electoral process.

7. For making the necessary logistical arrangements and providing other support required for the smooth conduct of the election, you may kindly contact Shri Mukesh Bhatt, who will coordinate and take appropriate steps in this regard.

We are confident that, under your guidance, the election will be conducted in a free, fair, transparent and orderly manner, in keeping with the democratic traditions and constitutional principles of AIBRF.

We look forward to your confirmation and cooperation in this important responsibility during the forthcoming Triennial Conference.

With regards,

Your Sincerely
