Dear Comrades,

Re: SUPREME COURT JUDGEMENT IN FAVOUR OF SBM RETIREES

We are happy to inform that Supreme Court has delivered two important judgments in favour of retirees of State Bank of Mysore. Our affiliate, State Bank of Mysore Pensioners' Commune was fighting this legal battle for last several years to protect interest of large number of retirees in the bank. Details of the judgement are as under:

- (a) Benefit of 1684 points neutralisation should be extended to those who retired between 1998 to 2002 (7th wage settlement)
- (b) 5 years notional benefit in fixing basic pension as per Regulation No. 29 of Pension Regulations should be extended to those who took VRS under Special VRS Scheme of the bank

2.It is very important and historical victory of our affiliate and their comrades for which they successfully fought relentlessly. We convey our heartiest congratulations to their General Secretary, Shri C.N.Prasad (Vice President, AIBRF) and his entire team for this significant achievement.

3. It may be clarified to avoid possible quarries that the above two benefits are already available to the pensioners of other banks through efforts of AIBRF. Benefit of 1684 point was extended to pensioners retired under 7 settlement as per the provisions of 8th settlement and AIBRF affiliates successfully fought in Supreme Court for 5 years notional benefit and about 1 lakhs affected pensioners were given this benefit by banks in 2009 as per the court order.

With Warm Regards

Yours Sincerely,

(S.C.JAIN)
GENERAL SECRETARY
