Dear Comrades,

Re: First Retired Women Convention organised by Karnataka State Committee

First State Level Retired Women Convention was organised in the city of Bangalore on Sunday 11th March,2018 by Karnataka State Committee of AIBRF with an object to ensure better participation of women in the on-going struggle of bank retirees and to create awareness among them for their pension related rights. This was maiden attempt by any state body of AIBRF.

2. The convention was inaugurated by the President, AIBRF Shri S.M Deshpande in jam-packed hall where 500 plus women members from all parts of the state were present. Chief Guest of the function was Dr. Vasundhra Bupathy. General Secretary of the state committee, Shri Vishwnath Naik who is the brain behind the whole project of launching women wing presented the resolutions/ documents to lay foundation of this new wing.

3. The house elected regular body of women representatives from different banks to manage affairs of the women wing.

4. We convey our heartiest congratulations to Convenor of the Women Wing in Karnataka State, Mrs. Uma V. Kumar from Canara Bank and her team for this innovative idea in bank retiree movement and wish them all the best in their endeavour. We assure all support from AIBRF to this newly established wing. We also convey our thanks to Com. Vishwanath Naik, General Secretary, Karnataka State Committee and his entire team for taking initiative in establishing women wing in Karnataka.

4. Photos of the function will be uploaded on AIBRF site shortly.
With Warm Regards

Yours Sincerely,

(S.C.JAIN)
GENERAL SECRETARY
