Dear Comrades

Re: Supreme Court decision on SLP filed by some Retirees in the matter of 100 % DA

We understand that Supreme Court has recently dismissed SLP filed by some retirees in the matter of 100 per cent Dearness Relief to the Pre-November 2002 retirees. We further understand that detailed judgment in the matter will be delivered by the Court shortly.

2. As all you are aware but still we would like to clarify further for the sake of clarity and to remove any confusion among the membership that decision to initiate legal action in this matter including filing of SLP in the Supreme Court was purely decision of the concerned petitioners on the individual basis and AIBRF as an organisation was not party to the decision taken in this regard.

3. As you know that AIBRF has been pursuing demand of 100 per cent DA and other issues at the organisational level for last several years and shall continue to do so in future.

4. Since the above decision will affect large number of our membership, we shall give our detailed comments after studying the detailed decision when delivered. In the light of this development, Office Bearer team shall meet shortly and formulate future strategy taking all aspect in to consideration.

5. In the meantime, we request all our office bearers, Central Committee Members, state body chiefs, affiliates and membership not to circulate any message received from unconfirmed sources and wait for official communication in this regard.

With Regards,

Yours Sincerely,

(S.C.JAIN)
