Dear Comrades

Re: 1st Triennial Conference of Odisha State Committee Of A.I.B.R.F

First Triennial Conference of Odisha State Committee of AIBRF was held at Bhuneshwar on 29th January, 2016.

2 Chief Guest of the conference was Member of Parliament (Lok Sabha) Shri Baijanta Panda. In his Chief Guest address, Sj. Baijayanta Panda stated that by virtue of dedicated service rendered by the bank employees during last 4 decades, huge expansion of banks could be made possible in remote rural areas of our country but still there are more than 4000 Gram Panchayats having no access to banking. The credit flow in rural areas through different social schemes channelised by banks has brought tremendous economic development and living standard of common people. Most of the bank employees of yester days are retired now and they deserve due recognition for their past services. He further stated that he has understood and noted the problems of bank retirees and assured to take up the issue with Finance Department, Government. of India and if possible with Prime Minister of India and also to raise the matter in the Finance Committee of the Parliament. He advised the Bank Retirees' Organisations to popularise their demand through social media so that attention of the concerned authorities can be drawn easily.

3. Shri S.M.Deshpande, President, AIBRF delivered his inaugural speech. He gave detailed position relating to the retirees' issues vis-a-vis the present developments. He requested Sj. Baijayanta Panda to lend his support to the genuine grievances of bank retirees and to take up the issues with Finance Minister and Prime Minister of India for its resolution.

4. Photos of the conference are being uploaded on our website.

With Warm Regards

Yours Sincerely

(S.C.JAIN)
