Re: Submission of Memorandum to PMO, FM & Other authorities
Re: GUIDELINES

We are happy to note that as per the call of AIBRF , signature campaign in support of retirees' demands is going on in full swing. Reports with photos from different parts of the country are reaching at central office. We will issue first report on the action programs with full details on 15.01.2020.

2. In the meantime, we below give guidelines for submission of memorandum with signatures at the conclusion of the program

- All Centers will submit the memorandum directly to PMO, Finance Minister & IBA. Original should be sent to PMO and copies to others.
- Covering letter will be prepared addressed to the concerned office by each center attaching the signed memorandum. The covering letter should invariably mention number of signatures attached.
- Copy of the covering letter may be sent to Central Office, AIBRF and also to the office of the concerned State Committee preferably by mail.
- Memorandum should be sent by Speed Post at all 3 addressees.

Address of three offices are given below

- Honorable Prime Minister of India
