The Office Bearers, Central Committee Members, State Body Chiefs AIBRF

Dear Comrade,

Re: Action Programmes of AIBRF during the Month of May 2016

One of the action programmes being conducted by our affiliates and state bodies on the call of AIBRF during the month of May 2016 is to meet Members of the Parliament and submit memorandum on the retiree issues with the request to write to Finance Minister for their early resolution. We are happy to inform you that our affiliates / state bodies have submitted memorandum in delegation to 15 MPs so far. All have assured to write to FM and raise the bank retiree issues during next session of parliament.

2. Further, we are happy to inform you that today, 19.05.2016 delegation of AIBRF, lead by the Vice President and President of Delhi State Body Shri D.P. Gupta and Deputy General Secretary, AIBRF Shri A.K. Bansal and accompanied by several other office bearers of Delhi State Committee met the Honourable Minister, Science & Technology, Government of India and M.P. (Lok Sabha) from Delhi Dr Harsh Vardhan in his office at Delhi and handed over the memorandum on retiree issues to him. During the discussion he assured to forward it to the FM Shri Arun Jattely.

3. On 17.05.2016, in Delhi delegation of AIBRF lead by the President, Delhi State Committee accompanied by several office Bearers met the Honourable Minister of State, Tourism, Culture & Civil Aviation, Government of India and handed over to him the memorandum on retiree issues. After hearing the delegation on retiree issues, he has assured to forward to the FM.

4. Our action programme on submission of online representation is going on in full swing. On the basis of initial feedback received from various centres, the figure has already crossed 9000 . We request our office bearers, central committee members and state body chiefs to contact the membership at the grass root level
