Representatives from Associate Banks In AIBRF

Dear Comrades

Re: Merger of 5 Associate Banks in SBI

As all of you are aware, Government of India has now issued official notification for merger of 5 associate banks with State Bank of India and in all probabilities, merger will be effective from 1st April, 2017.

2. AIBRF has presence in the following associate banks through its affiliates

- State Bank of Travancore
- Sate Bank of Mysore
- State Bank of Patiala- 2 units
- State Bank of Indore
- State Bank of Hyderabad

TOTAL MEMBERSHIP OF AIBRF IN ABOVE BANKS MORE THAN 10000

3. After of Merger of associate banks, retiree issues will have to be taken up with the Central Office of State Bank of India instead of our affiliates taking them with the respective bank managements as being done presently. We have also to ensure that retiree interest is protected at the time of merger and there should not be any term of merger which should adversely affect interest of our membership/ retirees from these banks. Further we expect qualitative changes in unions set up in the post-merger environment which will have bearing on retiree interest.

4. In view of the above developments, at AIBRF level there is need to review our present set up for associate banks and take appropriate steps at the organisational level to protect interest of the retiree from these banks under changed scenario.

5. It is therefore decided to discuss this issue in detail at the proposed Office Bearers Meeting to be held at Indore on 29th & 30th April, 2017.

6. The following representatives from associate banks are requested to attend the office Bearers Meeting to participate in the discussion on the issues of associate banks.

- State Bank of Travancore

Shri K. Srinivasan
