Dear Comrades,

Re: Organizational Action Programs of AIBRF for Reduction in GST Rates on premium Payable on group insurance policy.

As per the decision taken in Delhi Conference and in subsequent meetings held, AIBRF has been making organizational efforts at various level to achieve reduction in GST rates on premium payable by retirees/ senior citizens for obtaining group health insurance policy as part of making health insurance affordable for all section of retirees.

2. Having achieved some important improvements in terms and conditions in group policy due for next renewal, we took decision in the meeting held on 10.10.20, to make further efforts at the organizational level for reduction in GST rates.

3. Accordingly, we are happy to announce the following action programs at AIBRF level to be implemented at various levels in coming months

- (a) We enclose AIBRF Representation in the matter addressed to the honorable Finance Minister & Chairman GST Council with copy to 32 members of GST Council, concerned officials, IBA Chairman & UFBU Constituents. From Central Office, in coming days we are arranging to send this representation to all concerned by mail and speed post
- (b) Thereafter, we ask our state committees to make arrangements to submit the representations to GST Council Members in delegation in the concerned states before end of December, 2020.
- (c) Central Office shall arrange press conferences on the issue to create public opinion and media publicity.
- (d) State Committees are also requested to arrange press conferences, wherever possible, after submission of the memorandum in the state
- (e) Central Office is taking steps to secure support of other retiree organizations from banking industry and other sectors on the issue.

4. AIBRF is committed to work on continuous basis at various levels till it is achieved. We are confident that with support of all you we hope to get positive results in this area.

5. We request all our state committees to draw suitable action programs at their level to implement above action programs successfully. We request you to send detailed report on it at the earliest.

With Warm Greetings,

Yours Sincerely,
