The above SLP of United Bank came for hearing on 26.07.2017

2. The arguments were initiated by the petitioner ( United Bank) advocate Shri Dhruv Mehta ( Mittter & Mitter Co.) who submitted that the matter is identical to the case already decided by division bench of Madras High Court and subsequently confirmed by the same honourable bench in the Supreme Court dismissing SLP of the retirees. Therefor this SLP should also be disposed of accordingly.

3. Thereafter , immediately AIBRF Senior Council, Shri V.K.Bali ( raised the objection and pointed out that the judgement of Kolkata High Court is entirely on different grounds. He further requested the bench to allow him time for placing all relevant facts before the court for its kind consideration The court agreed for it and allowed him time to place the detailed arguments on the next date of hearing fixed on 1st August, 2017 for this purpose..
