Ref:2017/92

Date:23.08.2017

The Office Bearers/ Central Committee Members/ State Body Chiefs
A.I.B.R.F.

Dear Comrades,

Re: Proceedings in Supreme Court on 23.08.2017
In the matter of 100 per cent DA

Further to our circular no 2017/90 dated 18.08. 2017 in the matter, it may be advised to our members that SLPs of retirees against order of Madras High Court judgment restored by the Supreme Court order dated 14.08.2017 came for hearing today.

2. Though AIBRF/ United Bank of India Retired Employees Welfare Association, Kolkata was not direct party in these SLPs, but considering the fact that they were restored by the court in view of new facts brought out by our advocate during the proceedings on 01.08.2017 in the matter of Kolkata High Court judgement and outcome of the above SLPs will have direct bearing on the judgement reserved, we made request to our advocate Shri V.K.Bali to appear and seek court permission to intervene in the matter to place record in straight if required.

3. We are happy to inform that our advocate Shri V.K.Bali was asked by the bench to assist the court in placing the relevant facts of 1st August 2017 proceedings once again.

4. Bank Managements/ IBA advocates during the arguments mainly harped on cost factor and pointed out that cost arrear may be quite large say Rs. 4000 crores. On hearing this the honourable court has asked IBA/ Retirees to submit cost details within one week for the consideration of the court. The entire proceedings lasted for about 70 minutes. Thereafter the judgements on the SLPs were reserved.

5. We find that during the proceedings the bank management/IBA advocates hardly touched any point on the provisions of the settlement etc. because of that DA benefit was denied to the pre-2002 retirees for last 15 years.

6. As per the details given above and our earlier communications, AIBRF in coordination with UIBRWA have made all efforts to place all legal points/ facts effectively before the honourable Court to protect interest of retirees.
