Dear Sir

RE; BIPARTITE TALK OF 13-06-2014

We are happy to inform you that in the bipartite talk of 14-06-2014 the retiree issues were discussed and IBA informed as under

(1) IBA is favourably inclined to consider 100 percent Dearness Allowance to all retirees including pre-2002 retirees and have written to the government for approval. Approval is awaited.

(2) As regards improvement in family pension, IBA is favourably inclined to consider and will recommend to the government for approval after studying cost implications.

(3) As regards updation exercise for the past retirees, IBA is apprehensive about it in view of huge cost involved in it.

We feel it is big move forward on retiree issues. However we have to be vigil till our all demands are achieved in this settlement. We convey our thanks to UFBU leadership for taking the retiree forward.

As regards employee issues the IBA has give revised offer of 11 percent against UFBU demand of 25 percent. In view of this, talks have remained inconclusive. UFBU will decide future course of action shortly.

Thanking you,

Yours Sincerely

(S.C.JAIN)
